United States France Germany Lower spending on defense Lower spending on retirement pensions Lower spending on healthcare Lower spending on welfare benefits Lower spending on education Lower spending on other programs Higher taxes on the wealthiest Higher corporate income tax rate Higher personal income tax rates Higher public deficit